Step into vintage charm with modern flair in this beautifully restored 1.5-storey home, built in 1951 and loaded with personality. Tucked into a mature, tree-lined boulevard with towering elms arching over the street, this home offers a perfect blend of nostalgic character and contemporary comfort.

Extensively renovated throughout, you'll find original hardwood floors lovingly restored, a full kitchen makeover featuring warm butcher block counters, open-concept living, and vintage-look appliances—including a gas stove, matching fridge, and a charming range hood.
